

If the local stations were doing there job of presenting information to the public...then we would of never gone to pay radio. I feel someone is upset that local stations do not have they following of xm radio. We pay good money to have this service so leave it alone. Spend time and money on better things...local stations need to take a look at there competition and better them selfs...then people might go back to commerical radio...